DR. A. Q. KHAN SCHOOL & COLLEGE, BAHRIA TOWN PHASE-8
MODEL PAPER ENGLISH CLASS: VIII

Time Allowed: 2.10 Hrs

Maximum marks: 50

SECTION-B (30 MARKS)

Q.2 Read the following passage carefully and answer ALL the questions.

Note: Question (i) about summary writing carries 05 marks while the rest of the questions carry 02 marks each. (5+4x2=13)

Hazrat Muhammad Rasulallah (S.A.W) practically applied the principles of equality and brotherhood that he established among members of the Islamic Society, even on himself. At numerous occasions, he ensured justice for all.

When the Rasulallah was inspecting the rows of the companions before the battle of Badar, he passed one companion that was slightly protruding from the line, so the Messenger of Allah pushed him back to be in line with the others. As a result, the man left complaining about this and wanted to take retribution from Rasulallah who allowed the man to take retribution from him. Consequently, the companion asked Rasulallah to uncover his stomach in order to retaliate. Rasulallah complied with the companion's wishes shows how he was a physical representation of great justice for both his relatives and non-relatives; a justice that is based on the truth and gives people their rights. But all the companion did was to embrace the Messenger of Allah and kiss his stomach; the companion wanted that to be the last thing he did before entering the battle. Therefore, the Messenger of Allah supplicated Allah for the companion to receive barakah.

The story of the woman from Bani Mukhzum accused for theft highlights this point. Hazrat Jabir reported that a woman from the tribe of Mukhzum committed theft. She was brought to Rasulallah (S.A.W). Her family sought the help of the people close to Rasulallah to intercede for them with the Messenger of Allah. But the Messenger of Allah did not accept such intercession, replying with words that history has preserved for all time.

What destroyed the nations before you, was that if a noble amongst them stole, they would forgive him, and if a poor person amongst them stole, they would inflict Allah's legal punishment on him. By Allah, if Fatima, the daughter of Muhammad stole, I would cut off her hand.

As Muslims, we need to follow the path of Rasulallah (S.A.W) following the truth and exercising fair judgment, even if it is against ourselves, our parents or relatives. We are given a responsibility that we must ensure not to villainize others, oppress them, or infringe on their rights. Ensuring the proper administration of justice is a difficult path but it is the path of Rasulallah (S.A.W) and we must always follow it to be successful in life and the hereafter.
